INSTRUCTIONS:

Use this form for the transactions shown above. To obtain an original Alaska title or transfer a title from another person, you must use an Application for Title & Registration (Form 812).

Complete all of the requested information and check the appropriate box. If you need to add additional comments, use the "comments" line. If there is a possibility that you have moved since the last time your registration was updated, please provide your current mailing and residence address. If you are applying for a transaction on a commercial vehicle, you must complete Form A-7001 and submit it with your request.

Current fees and requirements are as follows and are subject to change:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| Remove lienholder - $15.00 | Original title required. The lien must be released on the face of title, or a separate lien release is required. A separate lien release must include a serial number and description of the vehicle. (Fee includes a title & registration) |
| Change Vehicle Class - $2.00 | Comment required as to why the class is being changed. (Registration) |
| Plate transfer - $5.00 | Provide plate number that is being transferred and a copy of the last registration, if available. The name on the previous registration and new registration must match. (Registration) |
| Special plate type - various | Provide required documents for request. (ie Vet plates - DD214) There is a separate application (803) to order personalized plates. (Registration, month & year tabs provided with new plates) |
| Duplicate registration - $2.00 | (Registration) |
| Duplicate title - $15.00 | Must provide a notarized lost title affidavit (809) in addition to this application. (Title & registration) |
| Lost plate/tab - $5.00 | New registration is issued with either of these. The correct month and year tabs are included in the $5.00 fee for duplicate license plates. |
